

Fred Unmack Scholarship

Funded and administered by the Montana State Employers' Council
PO Box 1728, Helena, MT 59624-1728

About Fred: Fred Unmack was an active and enthusiastic volunteer in local Job Service Employers Committees (JSECs) and the Montana State Employers' Council (MSEC). He was an attorney by profession and willingly donated his expertise toward the incorporation of the MSEC. Fred took an active role in the Glendive and Lewistown JSECs – volunteering countless hours toward local projects. He also served on the MSEC Executive Board for many years as an Area Representative. He was a smart, caring, generous, quick-witted and gregarious man. It was just plain fun to be around Fred. In May 2003, Fred was the first JSEC member to receive the MSEC Spark Plug Award for his outstanding volunteer contributions. Shortly afterwards, he was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Fred maintained his optimism and famous sense of humor through an aggressive and grueling course of treatment. He passed away in June 2004.
